Re: Olive Group North America LLC, et al. v. Afghanistan International Bank,
No. 1:21-cv-10836-ER

Dear Judge Ramos:

Defendant Afghanistan International Bank writes pursuant to Your Honor's Individual Practice Rule 1(E) to request that the Court grant a further extension, until June 30, 2022, for Defendant to file its motion requesting attorneys' fees (the "Motion").

This is the second request for an extension in connection with this Motion. On June 3, 2022, Defendant requested an extension from June 9, 2022 to June 23, 2022 to file the Motion. (ECF No. 48.) This Court granted that extension and extended Plaintiffs' time to oppose the Motion through July 14, 2022, and Defendant's time to reply through July 22, 2022. (ECF No. 49.)

Since the Court granted the prior extension, the parties have engaged in a series of meet and confer discussions in an attempt to resolve the dispute regarding attorneys' fees. As part of this process, Defendant has provided Plaintiffs' counsel with redacted invoices, and Plaintiffs are currently reviewing these invoices and responding to Defendant's supplemental request for information regarding the requested substitution. Despite the progress made to date, the parties require an additional seven (7) days to continue their good faith negotiations.

If the Court approves this request, the new deadline for Defendant to file the Motion will be June 30, 2022, Plaintiffs' response will be due on or before July 7, 2022, and Defendant's reply will be due on or before July 14, 2022.

Plaintiffs do not oppose this request.
